

1

Charles IV, the Fair (d. 1328) and his wife Jeanne d'Evreux (d. 1371), each holding a bag containing their entrails

Charles IV, the Fair (d. 1328) and his wife Jeanne d'Evreux (d. 1371), each holding a bag containing their entrails are sculptures created by Jean de Liege in 1372.

- Artist: Jean de Liege
- Subject: Charles IV of France, Jeanne d'Évreux
- Art Form: Sculpture
- Period / Movement: Gothic art

2

The Flight into Egypt

Photo: Metaweb \(FB\) / Public domain

- Artist: Lorenzo Monaco
- Subject: Flight into Egypt
- Genres (Art): History painting
- Art Form: Painting
- Period / Movement: Gothic art

3

The Three Marys at the Tomb

Photo: Metaweb \(FB\) / Public domain

- Artist: Lorenzo Monaco
- Period / Movement: Gothic art

Virgin and Child from the Sainte-Chapelle

The Virgin and Child from the Sainte-Chapelle is an ivory sculpture probably created in the 1260s, currently in the possession of the Louvre Museum in Paris. The museum itself describes it as "unquestionably the most beautiful piece of ronde-bosse [in the round] ivory carving ever made", and the finest individual work of art in the wave of ivory sculpture coming out of Paris in the 13th and 14th centuries.

- Subject: Child Jesus, Blessed Virgin Mary
- Genres (Art): Decorative arts
- Art Form: Sculpture
- Period / Movement: Gothic art

Virgin and Child of Jeanne d'Evreux

Virgin and Child of Jeanne d'Evreux is a statuette created by a silversmith between 1324 and 1339..

- Subject: Child Jesus, Blessed Virgin Mary
- Genres (Art): Decorative arts
- Art Form: Metalworking
- Period / Movement: Gothic art

Sceptre de Charles V

Sceptre de Charles V is a scepter created by Parisian goldsmiths between 1365 and 1380.

- Subject: Charlemagne
- Genres (Art): Decorative arts
- Art Form: Metalworking
- Period / Movement: Gothic art

The Crucifixion

The Crucifixion is a bronze bas-relief created by Donatello in 1440.

- Artist: Donatello
- Subject: Passion
- Genres (Art): Decorative arts
- Art Form: Bas-relief, Metalworking
- Period / Movement: Gothic art