

Mandarinarkivet (Mandarin archive)

The Mandarin Archive was an entertainment site (in Swedish) with party pictures from around year 2000–2006. Pictures from the rave club Docklands were common, and Dancers' Museum is less than 100 meters from where the club once was (1995-2002).

The European regulation GDPR forced websites such as finest.se and possibly mandarinarkivet.se (previous mandarin.nu) to close in 2018.

Today the website is on web.archive.org but it is not possible to click on the pictures:

https://web.archive.org/web/20170419040154/https://www.mandarinarkivet.se/event_pics.php?ev_id=3023&pic_id=1031

The website should be in the computer rooms on the 6th floor of Dancers' Museum.

Since there are seven different "skins" to choose from on the mandarin archive's website, I want to make a skin for each room, as a decoration on the wall.
